MUSIC APPRECIATION: Tonight, Saturday April 9th is the final Music Appreciation this Season. It will be held in the Great Hall from 7 to 9 PM. The main features will be the National Youth Orchestra of the United States of America and the American Youth Philharmonic. Both orchestras comprise the very best of American youth between the ages of 16 and 19. The videos show them performing at Carnegie Hall, Moscow, London, various locations throughout the USA and the Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts in Washington. Music includes works by Rachmaninoff, Borodin, Smetana, Gershwin, Beethoven, Liadov, Rossini and Mendelssohn.

Also featured is Victor Borge, in a hilarious performance of the Dance of the Comedians. The evening will close with a wonderful performance of America the Beautiful played by the American Youth Orchestra of America. When you see and hear these young performers play, you can be justifiably very proud of them representing your country around the world. If you have not been to a Music Appreciation before, give it a try, especially tonight. The performances are just outstanding and the music is light classical. Lemonade will be provided during the break. Please feel free to bring snacks to share. -- Alan and Rosemary Holdway

TRIVIA: A nice crowd showed up for trivia, but we missed George Agricola, especially in the subject area of ancient history. Several bottles of "grape soup" appeared, and a nice selection of sweet snacks was available. Drury Lane and House of Tudor came up during the English portion. Table #5, with Bonnie, Ellen Schleicher, Tom Weber and Rod, took top honors with 48 of 60. We may try to keep trivia going through April if there is sufficient interest. This trivia is about the most fun you can have here with your clothes on. Come on down. -- Rod

TRAVEL: It has been a good season, and thank you to everyone that has traveled with us. We have one more trip on the 17th of April; Funny Girl at Broadway Palm. If you want to be on the wait list, let me know. As of now, it is sold out. We will have two buses and I will have the bus schedules up next week. Any special requests, let me know ahead of time.

We are always open for suggestions. If you find a good deal, check it out with VIP World Travel, as they can usually come up with the same deal. Sue and Allan Knops are always ready to help you. You can reach them at 377-0017 or toll free 1-800-323-7448. At least give them a try.
