I used to be indecisive.
Now I'm not so sure.

MAILBOX UPDATE: A HUGE thanks go out to the crew of volunteers who braved the heat last weekend and completed 7 more mailboxes. Thanks to Dan Lauzun, Roger Blanchett, Chuck Chiles, Dave Martin, Ron Peltier and Larry Myers. We have now managed to complete all but 19 mailboxes. As my reign as Mailbox Queen comes to a close, I would also like to thank ALL of those who cooperated in the past year. I know it wasn't an easy job, and it certainly wasn't a fun way to spend two afternoons of your time in Paradise. In the true spirit of community, many of you volunteered to help a neighbor along with painting your own. I believe our Super-Volunteer was Tom Olsen, who painted at least 20 last season. I have kits waiting for a few people who told me they would do theirs when they return in the fall. Other remaining supplies will be sold extremely cheap at the Saturday meeting and my shed will no longer look like a paint storage center. It was a long but rewarding year. Thanks again to all, Bonnie Blackburn

HELP WANTED: Looking for help with our in-house Channel 195. You will need to have computer skills, basic Power Point knowledge and some creativity. Contact Don Richmond, 484-6807 or Charlie Fote, 484-5398.
